

New Jersey

Site Remediation Professional Licensing Board

DISCLAIMER

This training is for educational purposes only. Attendees should not consider any views presented or materials distributed during this training, including the discussion of case scenarios, as legal advice, or rely on information presented as legal advice.

The views presented and materials distributed are provided solely for use during this program and should not be construed as offering legal, ethical or professional advice for any individual case, person or situation, or as commentary on any pending or impending case before the Board.